

The Heart's Desire

A Film / Discussion Series
March 1 – April 12, 2012

Co-hosts Bolton Anthony and Kay-Robert Volkwijn reprise the popular film/discussion series that explores the Heart's Desire in later life to rediscover and reinvent itself and live a more simple, yet larger and more meaningful, life.

Autumn Spring

Thursday, March 1

A septuagenarian Czech retiree acts the prankster, much to the consternation of his practical-minded wife and their son, in this droll, deceptively easygoing film. It's a sly, wry fable about the refusal to grow old that has poignancy as well as charm. (Subtitled)

(2001)

95 minutes

PG-13

Schultze Gets the Blues

Thursday, March 29

One night Schultze, a laid-off German miner and champion accordion player, hears the unfamiliar strains of Zydeco on his radio and is catapulted into a life-changing quest that takes him from Germany to the bayous of Louisiana. (Subtitles)

(2003)

114 minutes

PG

Central Station

Thursday, March 15

An unlikely friendship forms between a cynical 67-year-old woman who works at a Rio de Janeiro central station, writing letters for the illiterate customers she disdains, and a 9-year-old boy who is seeking his father. (Subtitles)

(1998)

113 minutes

R

As It Is in Heaven

Thursday, April 12

Daniel Dareus is a talented and successful international conductor who is forced by failing health to return to his childhood village in the far north of Sweden where he unwittingly fulfills his greatest desire in a place where he least expects it. (Subtitles)

(2004)

132 minutes

NR

www.SecondJourney.org/Films.htm

Sponsored by Second Journey in partnership with the Seymour Center

The Seymour Center is located at 2551 Homestead Road in Chapel Hill. Programs begin at 6:30 PM sharp. The films will be followed by a brief lecture of 15-20 minutes and — if time allows — general audience discussion. The series is hosted by Bolton Anthony and Kay Robert-Volkwijn. For more information and links to movie trailers can be found at the URL above.

Before founding Second Journey, Bolton Anthony taught English and creative writing to undergraduates and worked as a public librarian, a university administrator, and social change activist.

Kay-Robert Volkwijn is a retired Presbyterian minister with an avid, lifelong interest in films. A native of South Africa, he was active in the anti-apartheid movement, especially on the issues of divestment and sanctions.

Autumn Spring
Thursday, March 1

Central Station
Thursday, March 15

The Heart's Desire

...Reprised!

Thursdays, March 1 – April 12 at 6:30 PM
Seymour Center ~ 2551 Homestead Road

www.SecondJourney.org/films.htm

Schultze Gets the Blues
Thursday, March 29

As It Is in Heaven
Thursday, April 12

